Ich heie Bunim

...of my first full day. Yesterday I came here. I was loaded from the cattle trucks into this awful looking place. Though I'm
...actly what it is (I know for sure it is the worst place on the planet). A massive muscular man stood by the gate his eyebrows
...y down and his hair and mouth the covered the rest of his face. He wore a big coat with badges of importance and his arm
...t out with a screaming dog. It barked me into the gate and growled as the guard laughed and pointed at me. I felt so inhuman I
...o body. I felt like just a number someone who didn't see anything to anyone. But then what I didn't know is that the worst
...to come. Another muscular figure that looked practically the same as the other grabbed me by the arm and pushed me
... my body flying across the gateway and into a pile of mud. I stood up and looked around. People looked terrified. Babies
... children crying and the fabric of families were being sliced with no sympathy.
...ed in a line for around 1 and a half hours. It poured with rain my clothes were drenched and the mud that had seen me was
...ped down my face. Finally I was at the front of the queue there wasn't much excitement as I had no idea what to expect when I got
... on thick gloves on gathered both of my arms. "Stand still, don't move, you idiot!" Said one of the guards. I did what he said as he was ... directed me to the left. I didn't move. I was confused. But shortly after one of the guards pushed me to the left I did nothing but held it tight.
... and shouted to keep moving we all moved into a rough circular shaped crowd and saw straight through my arm. I wanted to scream but ... didn't fall over. The way I went was killed with only me. The looked some what healthy like me. 10 guards with whips at hand dashed
... black whips. One guard caught my mouth and what? Don't scream they will only hurt you more! I know this would be the start of the rest of my life. My arm the got
... another man put his hand over my mouth and what? Don't scream they will only hurt you more! I know this would be the start of the rest of my life. My arm the got
... We were then pushed and shoved into a shed looking being where we were each handed a pair of the rest of my life. My arm the got ... another guard and a piece of rope tied around my mouth. A man with a weird looking matching with what looked like a
... tugged my another guard and started drawing numbers on my was excruciatingly painful. I wanted to scream but I figured not to. After
... that it became clear identity was strictly forbidden wear was completely shaved off.

This sign which reads: 'Arbeit Macht Frei,' is the sign on the entrance to Auschwitz Birkenau, one of the concentration camps, located in Poland and opened in 1940. It translates to: 'Work will set you free' and is an iconic symbol of the holocaust and a reminder of the inhumane and tragic actions that took place there and in the other camps too. The inscription in the gate is ironic as although it may not necessarily sound threatening, as soon as the prisoners (who were able to escape and survived) were taken inside, said that they realised what was happening and that they would no longer have any freedom, that they were being tortured, starved, murdered Jews throughout Nazi-occupied Europe were forced to wear a badge in the form of a Yellow Star as a means of identification. This was not a new idea; since medieval times, many other societies had forced their Jewish citizens to wear badges to identify themselves.

The star was intended to humiliate Jews and to mark them out for segregation and discrimination. The policy also made it easier to identify Jews for deportation to camps.

gased! It can't be true though, can it? I wonder how Father's doing. David hasn't heard from his

We are being moved to a different location next week but still near dad.

I got really bored so I have done some doodling of what the lake, huts and the camp looks like. I am only 10 so there not very good.
