Important Notice Regarding Admittance to Performances of 'A Christmas Carol'

Dear Parent and Carer

We have had an amazing response to ticket sales for the upcoming Christmas Production of 'A Christmas Carol' and we would like to thank everyone for their untiring support for the whole project. We have issued the final tickets last Thursday 1st December 2022 through tutor groups: hopefully, all issued tickets have now reached home.

As both nights are sold out, we would ask for your cooperation on the evening of the performances. Entry to the production will be by ticket only, meaning that people without a ticket will be turned away at the door: please do ensure you bring your ticket with you to the performance, and please do not presume an extra person would gain admission at the door. The school hall has a maximum health and safety audience limit, which the school must strictly adhere to.

If you have paid for tickets and not yet received them, please contact Mr Ross directly by email:

Doors on both nights will open at 6.15 pm, to allow plenty of time for our guests to be admitted and find their seats. We would ask that you arrive in good time so that the beginning of the performance is not disrupted. Early arrivers will be able to purchase a drink at the bar, or from Dan the Man who will be serving coffee and other drinks. Also, in negotiation, is the possibility of a few festive stalls being set up just outside the main entrance to the building.

Everyone involved in the production is excited about the performance, which showcases the talent of our students at Great Marlow School. All that is needed now is a crisp curtain rise, which is dependent upon the timely arrival of our audience members, their tickets in hand.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Yours faithfully

Mr S Ross
